The key responsibilities of this position include:

- Purchasing, ordering and warehousing common-use consumables in consultation with department heads
- Maintaining adequate stock levels and ensuring appropriate stock rotation
- Assisting with the annual stocktake process
- Completing general stores and related duties as required
- Working collaboratively and cooperatively within a team environment
- Providing relief for the Maintenance/Stores Supervisor during periods of leave when required

About You

The successful applicant will:

- Have previous experience working in a health service or similar environment
- Be able to work independently and under supervision
- Demonstrate good organisational skills, attention to detail and time management
- Communicate effectively and build positive working relationships
- Show a strong commitment to confidentiality, workplace safety, and hospital policies and procedures

Benefits of working at Stirling Hospital

- Secure permanent part-time employment
- Salary packaging benefits - increase your take home pay
- A supportive, community-focused workplace
- A range of staff wellbeing activities and online professional development education
- The chance to contribute to a respected local health service
- Free car parking

Stirling Hospital is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer and is committed to providing a safe, inclusive and child-safe workplace.
